W. C. DeLoach Falls.

The grocery store of Mr. W. C. DeLoach was closed on Saturday. The closing was the result of an agreement between himself and his creditors. Mr. DeLoach decided that he was not making any money and took an inventory. His liabilities being about $1850. He held a conference with his leading creditors and turned the goods over to them and they are to receipt him against all claims.

Ran A Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.

While opening a box of J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by all Druggists.

When you are in town don't fail to go to Miss Sallie Wimberly's, she has something pretty and new in ladies' hats that she would like to show you.

FIERCE FIRE

SWEEPS SAVANNAH.

Sach., Oct. 3.—Savannah was visited tonight by the most disastrous fire it has suffered in years. The loss fell upon but one concern, John Roukes Iron Works and Marine Railway, but it was severe. Mr. Rouke himself announced his loss as being $125,000 with insurance a little short of $50,000.

The fire started or was discovered at 8:40 o'clock. Forty minutes before the night watchman had his rounds and found nothing amiss. When he saw the flames, they were bursting through the roof of the casting room. Almost at the same time there was a loud explosion of cartridges and powder in the casting room, and this caused immediate spread of the flames.

The watchman ran to a telephone and sent in the alarm. In a remarkably short time the entire department was on the scene to fight the first really big fire it has had to cope with in several years. Such a start had been gained by the flames through the nature of the contents of the building and through the explosion, however, that fireman found that they could direct their efforts with more advantage to the saving of surrounding property on Bay street.

THE STATESBORO NEWS.

(INCORPORATED.)

Statesboro, Ga. Oct. 13, 1903.

Published Tuesdays and Fridays by THE STATESBORO NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Entered a Statesboro Ga. Post Office a 2d class mail matter.

ONLY THREE DAYS.

Only three days remain in which to get our Fair Exhibit ready. We have been working night and day to get up a creditable Exhibit and the prospect now is, that if we will accomplish this, that is if those who have promised us articles for Exhibit do not overlook the fact that we must have it by Friday or we won't get it in time to set up the Exhibit.

If you have promised us anything send it in without delay. In sending sugar cane please don't cut it, but dig it up by the root, leave the top and all the fodder on it as it will keep fresh longer that way. In pulling peas or any kind of fruit leave some stem to them, they will also keep better. We will thank you to attend to this matter now.

If you intend to let us have something for the Fair Exhibit, send it in before Friday or we will not be able to get it to Macon in time.

WILL APPEAR FRIDAY.

Our Fair Edition will appear on Friday of this week. It will contain 48 pages of matter illustrating the many advantages of Bulloch county. We would like to go farther with it but it is scheduled to appear on the 16th and it will come then.

Several thousand copies have been sold to the people of this county and they will be delivered as soon as they can be put together. We have not offered them to all the people for lack of time but we will say if you want some of them to go to your friends, they will be on sale at The News Office at 10 cents per copy.

Its pages have been patronized by a goodly number of business men and to them it will be a good investment as thousands of them will be read both far and near.

He Learned A Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mrs. Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all Druggists.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digest what you eat.

NOTICE

Will be sold, on Thursday, Oct. 22, next, at the late residence of Allen Lee, deceased, the following described land, to wit: 280 acres of land near Jay, Ga., belonging to the estate of the said Allen Lee and bounded as follows: North by waters of Black Creek, east by lands of D. R. Lee, south by lands of C. B. Griner and west by lands of J. W. Lee. There are two farms on the land, one of which there is a good, new dwelling. Terms of sale: One-third cash, one-third due Nov. 1, 1904, and one-third due Nov. 1, 1905. Deferred payments to bear interest at 5 per cent per annum, and be secured by mortgage for the purchase money. Also will be sold at the same time and place 24 head of hogs, 125 bushels of corn 1500 bundles of fodder. Terms: For personalty, cash. M. J. McElveen, Jr., Managers.

Saves Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this great medicine and today is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for coughs and colds, who and all ailments guaranteed by W. H. Ellis, Trial bottle free.

Lyceum Announcements.

Mr. J. Williams Macey, humorist and author of "The Bunch of Grapes," will be here on October 27th or 28th. The exact date will be announced in Friday's paper. He is just as good as Bingham and no one can afford to miss him. If you haven't a season ticket yet, see Mr. W. G. Raines, treasurer, and procure one before the Macey lecture. If any one paid full lecture to the Bingham lecture and desire a season ticket now, the treasurer will allow you a credit on the price of the ticket for the amount you paid.

Prof. Aldine Pound, the eloquent young Georgian, who is making such a well-earned reputation, as a lecturer orator, will deliver his lecture on Robert E. Lee here on Friday night, November 13th. Further announcements will be made later.

Dr. Ross A. D. Grant has been dated to appear here in his famous illustrated lecture on Wednesday night, November 18th.

Fortune tellers apply to, Bulloch Co. H., Local Manager.

NOTICE OF DEATH.

Georgia—Bullock County.

Baro Burned.

On Thursday night last the barn of Mr. S. L. Nevils, near Nevils postoffice, was destroyed by fire. Mr. Nevils had just harvested most of his crop of corn and fodder. He lost about 150 bushels of corn, 5000 lbs of fodder and 8000 lbs of hay, besides other articles. He succeeded in saving his live stock just in time to escape the fire. Mr. Nevils carried no insurance and believes it was rats that did the damage. The loss was about $500.00.

We will be glad that those who have promised us products to go in the Fair Exhibit will bring them in at once. Our exhibit will leave here next Friday and we will have to have all in by that time. The arrangement with the railroad is that it all go in one ship-ment. When you are coming to town please bring it in. We have a house at the Central Railroad depot to store the exhibit in pre-paring for shipment. When you come to town call at the News office and somebody will wait on you. We will have some help to bring in some things, but it will be impossible to get all in, and we will appreciate it if our friends will assist us in getting this ex-

John W. Griffin Chooses Death Rather Than Surrender to the Officers of the Law

Stillmore, Ga., Oct. 10.—John W. Griffin, a white man, lies a corpse at the home of his niece, Mrs. L. T. Lanier, in this place, the result of a face-to-face duel to death with officers who were trying to effect his arrest for failing to answer his bond for appearance at the criminal court at Statesboro where he was under indictment for effecting a jail delivery about two years ago.

Griffin had been indicted and placed in jail, and had been bailed out by his brother-in-law, Mr. Livingston Collins, a highly respected and well-to-do farmer, living two miles from here. Griffin failed to appear at the last term of Superior Court at Statesboro, and the bond was forfeited. Since then Mr. Collins and his sons have been on the hunt for Griffin, who had fled to Florida, and later to near Sterling, in this state. A short time ago he returned and notified his bondsman that he intended to appear at court, but they later learned his intentions to do the contrary, and to-day Remer Collins, a son of the bondsman, and Eliza Coleman invited Griffin to go to the jail at Statesboro, where he finally agreed to do, and which he finally agreed to do, and which he finally agreed to do.

Griffin was connected with one of the oldest and best known families in this section, but was himself a very bad man, and lived the life of an outlaw for a number of years.

After the killing, Coleman and Collins brought Griffin into town, a distance of about four miles, Coleman had his knee dressed, and while he is painfully wounded, he will no doubt be well soon.

Public sentiment and all the circumstances completely exonerate Coleman and Collins, who are here.—Savannah Morning News.

An Art Exhibit for Bulloch's Space at the Fair.

Mr. Geo. W. DesBrosses has tendered us for the County Exhibit at the State Fair quite an array of handsome paintings in crayon and colors. Below we give title and description of each picture:

No. 1, painted in crayon, is entitled "Listening to His Master's Voice," and represents a dog sitting at the tube of a graphophone in listening attitude, and is supposed to be hearing a reproduction of his master's voice from the instrument.

No. 2, also a crayon, represents a scene on "Fjord River, Norway."

No. 3, crayon, is a painting of the world-famed Niagara Falls.

No. 4, a crayon, is entitled, "Taking a Refreshing Drink," and represents three horses drinking water from a stone basin.

No. 5, pastel colors, is entitled "A Scene on the Coast of Italy."

No. 6, pastel colors, "A Poem in Trees."

Mr. DesBrosses kindly furnished us these paintings by our request. He did not think of doing so until a few days ago, and consequently the collection is not as good as it would have been if he had been asked some time ago. In fact he just got together some he had been practicing on and painted one or two more, hurriedly, and let us have them. We would like for the people to call and see these pictures before we carry them to the fair.

There are seventeen prisoners in jail awaiting trial at superior court. There are 17 or 18 felony cases to be tried at this term of the court.

Ran A Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.
While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by all Druggists.

WARNING.
All parties are hereby forewarned against hunting, fishing or otherwise trespassing on the lands of the undersigned, located in the 1000th district of Bulloch county Ga.

Murderer Captured.
On Saturday night Sheriff Kendrick brought in Will Anderson and lodged him in jail. Anderson was arrested at Brewer. He was wanted for the murder of Will Norman, another negro, at Gooding's mill, last March. The case is said to have been one of cold-blooded murder. The sheriff walked up on his man when he least expected him, and to catch him was an easy job.

Convicted Them.
Last week in the city court, the jurors made it hot for the Defendants. They returned verdicts of guilty in about four-fifths of the cases, and it was a bad week for those charged with violating the laws.

The juries in Bulloch county have made up their minds to make it hot for the criminals, and they propose to see that no guilty ones shall escape.

A BIG SALE!

On the FIRST MONDAY IN NOVEMBER I will sell at public outcry some valuable city and suburban property.

I am cutting up 100 acres of desirable town lots, situated on and near North Main street, the best residence street in Statesboro.

Wide streets have been run through this property, lots cut into one-half, one acre two and three acre lots, to suit purchaser. This is the best property now on the market, and until now has not been for sale; but having a large number of applicants for them from good parties who want to build houses in that section of the city, I have decided to put this block of lots on the market at public outcry to the highest bidder, and give all an equal chance to bid.

Sale will be in front of court house door. Plats numbered will be on hand and can be seen by calling on me in advance at store of OLLIFF & SMITH.

Terms one-third cash, balance one and two years with approved security.

Also one hundred acre farm in the edge of the city, known as the "Foss property." This farm will be sold at private sale.

S. F. OLLIFF.

Married.

Dr. J. Lawton Hiers, of Savannah well known to many of our readers, was happily married to Miss Elizabeth Maxwell, of Omaha, Neb., on the 7th inst. The doctor and his bride left Omaha, where the ceremony was performed, on the 10th for a European trip. They will be away several months when the doctor will resume his practice in Savannah. His many friends in Bulloch will congratulate him heartily on his good fortune.
